The Horse consisting of 24 Squadrons, are coming after the Foot. A great Quantity of Corn, Biscuit, and Oats, is providing for the Subsistence of the Army which M. de Legal and Joffreville are about to form near Almazan, in order to make an Inruption into Arragon. Rome, April 23. The Duke de Turis having left his Squadron of Gallies at Civita Vecchia, came hither to perform the Devotions proper to the Holy Week; and having been splendidly treated by Cardinal Acquaviva, set out from hence Yesterday for Civita Vecchia, whence he will proceed with his Gallies for Naples. The Muscovite Minister who lately arriv'd here, has begun to make his Visits to the sacred College, and is treated as the Czar's Envoy, in the same Manner as the Ambassadors of Bologna and Ferrara usually are. He has always with him an Interpreter, to explain what he says and the Answers that are made to him. The Business he is come upon is not yet publicly known: But it appears from some of his Negotiations, that he will endeavour to persuade this Court not to make any Opposition to the Measures the Czar his Master shall take to bring about a new Election of a King of Poland.

Venice, April 29. They write from Modena, that the Duke of that Name having given out Commissions for raising several Regiments, those Levies are carried on with great Success. The Cardinal Legate of Ferrara had caus'd 15000 Sacks of Corn, which had been bought up in Romagna for storing the Duke of Modena's Magazines, to be stopp'd: But has since let them pass, upon Prince Eugene's acquainting him that the said Corn was design'd for the Subsistence of the Emperour's Army, and threatening to send a Detachment of 1000 Horse to take them out of his Hands unless he would quietly let them pass. We have an Account from Ferrara, that by Order from the Pope the Cardinal Legate of that Place has augmented its Garrison considerably. The Duke of Mantua continues here, and plays at Tennis daily for his Diversion. The Duke of Guastalla is preparing to go from hence in a little Time with all his Family to Guastalla, by the Emperour's Permission. Signior Morosini Gallo who is appointed Ambassador from this Republick to the Turkish Court, is on his Departure for Constantinople.

An Apartment is fitting up in the Imperial Palace for the Princess Elizabeth of Wolfenbuttel. King Charles III has given the Principality of Piombino to the Prince of Lichtenstein. General Kriechbaum set out from hence a Day or two ago for Landau, of which he is appointed Governour: But his Imperial Majesty has sent an Express after him with an Order for his Return hither; and 'tis said he is to go to Italy and command under General Taun the Detachment design'd for Naples: Some pretend to know, that there is a Treaty in Agitation between the Emperour and the King of France, for the Troops of the two Crowns to evacuate the Kingdom of Naples. Yesterday an Express was sent from Court to Italy with Dispatches of Moment for Prince Eugene of Savoy. Yesterday a Captain arriv'd from Transilvania, with an Account that Prince Ragotski was gone from Varschel to Weissenbourg, with the Envoys of the King of France and of the Elector of Bavaria, to make his Entry into that Place as Prince of Transilvania. The Imperial Forces in Hungary are to draw together in a Body the 6th of next Month at Kircsee, to the Number of 20000 effective Men: And 'tis said General Staremburg will march with that Army the 15th to the Relief of Leopoldstad, and will afterwards lay Siege to Neuhausel or Cassovia; in Order to which last Expedition, 25 Pieces of heavy Cannon, and a very great Quantity of Ammunition and Provisions are embarking on the Danube.
